Professional experience

OCTOBER 2015: French teacher in Eton Institute Abu Dhabi.

OCTOBER 2008– March 2009: recruited as a Lawyer trainee in the Law Firm "KALLEL & ASSOCIATE".

The core of the job was not only to help on drafting contracts, but also to conduct research on relevant laws, regulations and articles. I notably had the opportunity to publish legal paper under the banner of the law firm on the Oxford Business Group Report on Tunisia for the year 2009.

SEPTEMBER 2008 : A training in the international law firm Gide Loyrette Nouel.

I mainly helped to the drafting of a shareholder agreement and writing notes to the stakeholders.

JULY 2007 :

A training in the most important Tunisian law firm « CABINET FERCHIOU & ASSOCIES ». During this Training I dealt with drafting of several contracts in English language such as labor contracts, concession contracts and other shareholder agreements.

Also, I had the opportunity to assist lawyers in their investigations, prepare and organize files for the cases.

September 2005:

Training in Amen Bank (second private Bank in Tunisia) within the dealing room and the external financing Division.

This training has made me discover the business world from the eye of a banker. I had the opportunity to see how external lines of credit, financing investments, are settled in and how they are negotiated with international institutions as the EIB and the AFDB.

I had also the opportunity to discover the capital markets world especially treasury management.

July 2004 :

Training in a travel agency « Tunisie Voyages ».
